

Wilmington Police took 6 dangerous weapons off the street early this morning during proactive patrols in the downtown area.

Around 1:30 this morning Police were on patrol at the corner of Water and Dock Streets, when they came across two suspicious suspects trying to discard a hand-gun. Further investigation by the Officers revealed that one of the suspects, 23 year old Eric Jeroba Bullard was wanted by the Brunswick County Sheriff's Department. Two nearby vehicles being used by the suspects were searched and yielded, (2) 9mm handguns, (2) SKS assault rifles, (1) shotgun, and (1) .38 caliber revolver. All of the weapons were loaded. Police also confiscated additional ammunition for each weapon.

17 year old Antoine Graham has been charged with carrying a concealed weapon and possession of a firearm by a minor.

23 year old Eric Jeroba Bullard has been charged with possession of marijuana, possession of a firearm by a felon, 3 counts of failure to appear, and wanted in Brunswick County for trafficking heroin.

Additional charges are forthcoming.
